

Fix the Civics Mistakes — Answers

Name: _____ Date: _____

Accept equivalent accurate wording. The underlined error should identify the incorrect role, place or term.

1. Corrected: Senators represent states or territories.
2. Corrected: The Federal Government is responsible for Australia's immigration system.
3. Corrected: The House of Representatives is one House of the Australian Parliament.
4. Corrected: A proposed federal law is called a bill.
5. Corrected: A senator sits in the Senate.

This is a simplified version of the usual federal law-making process. Bills can be amended and considered through additional parliamentary stages.

Fix the Civics Mistakes — Answers

Name: _____ Date: _____

Accept equivalent accurate wording. The underlined error should identify the incorrect role, place or term.

6. Corrected: A House member represents a federal electorate in the House.
7. Corrected: Council rubbish collection is mainly a local service.
8. Corrected: In the usual process, a bill needs agreement in identical form from both Houses.
9. Corrected: An absolute majority means more than half the votes.
10. Corrected: The Federal Parliament meets in Canberra.

This is a simplified version of the usual federal law-making process. Bills can be amended and considered through additional parliamentary stages.