

CONSTITUTION OR ORDINARY LAW?

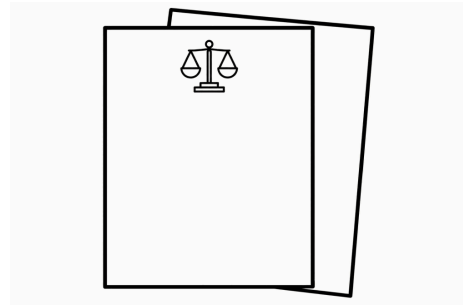

Name: _____ Date: _____

Classify each broad fictional example. The Constitution sets the Commonwealth framework. Ordinary Acts are made under legislative powers.

CONSTITUTION

LAW MADE BY PARLIAMENT

Place the cards from page 2

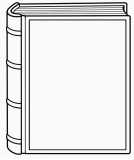

Or write the card numbers in each box.

These are introductory examples, not a task in interpreting actual constitutional law.

CONSTITUTION OR LAW — CARDS

Name: _____ Date: _____

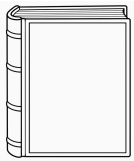

Cut along the dashed outlines, or copy card numbers.

1. The Commonwealth framework includes a Senate and a House of Representatives.

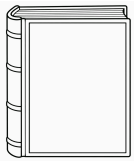

2. A fictional Act sets standards for a federal service.

3. The Commonwealth framework sets rules for altering the Constitution.

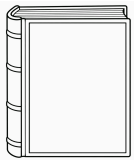

4. A fictional Act regulates a particular import under federal powers.

5. The Commonwealth framework describes executive power.

6. A fictional Act sets a fee for a federal service.

7. The Commonwealth framework provides for the High Court.

8. A fictional Act sets requirements for a national program.

Explain one choice
