

All About My Interests

Name / chosen name: _____

Choose real or imaginary interests. No family or personal background details are required.

Favorite activity

Favorite book or story

Something I am good at

Something I want to learn

Favorite place, real or imagined

Favorite animal or creature

My Holiday or Imaginary Adventure

Name / chosen name: _____

Draw a real, imagined or storybook adventure. You do not need to describe a trip or holiday you actually took.

1. Where the adventure happens

2. Something interesting that happens

3. A feeling or thought in the story

Our New Class

Name / chosen name: _____

Imagine a welcoming class. Draw a place or activity and suggest ways the group can work together.

1. A shared activity

2. How people can choose different ways to join

3. A helpful group expectation

Things I Want to Learn

Name / chosen name: _____

Choose achievable learning goals. You may use an imaginary learner.

My goal

A small first step

People or resources that can help

How I will notice progress

Find Something We Share at School

Name / chosen name: _____

Find shared interests by talking, pointing or using fictional examples. Ask permission, and anyone may pass.

Interest	Shared example or fictional pair
A book or story
A game
A creative activity
An animal
A thing to learn
A quiet activity
A place in a story
A way to help	