Bee Day Coloring Together

Name / chosen name: _____

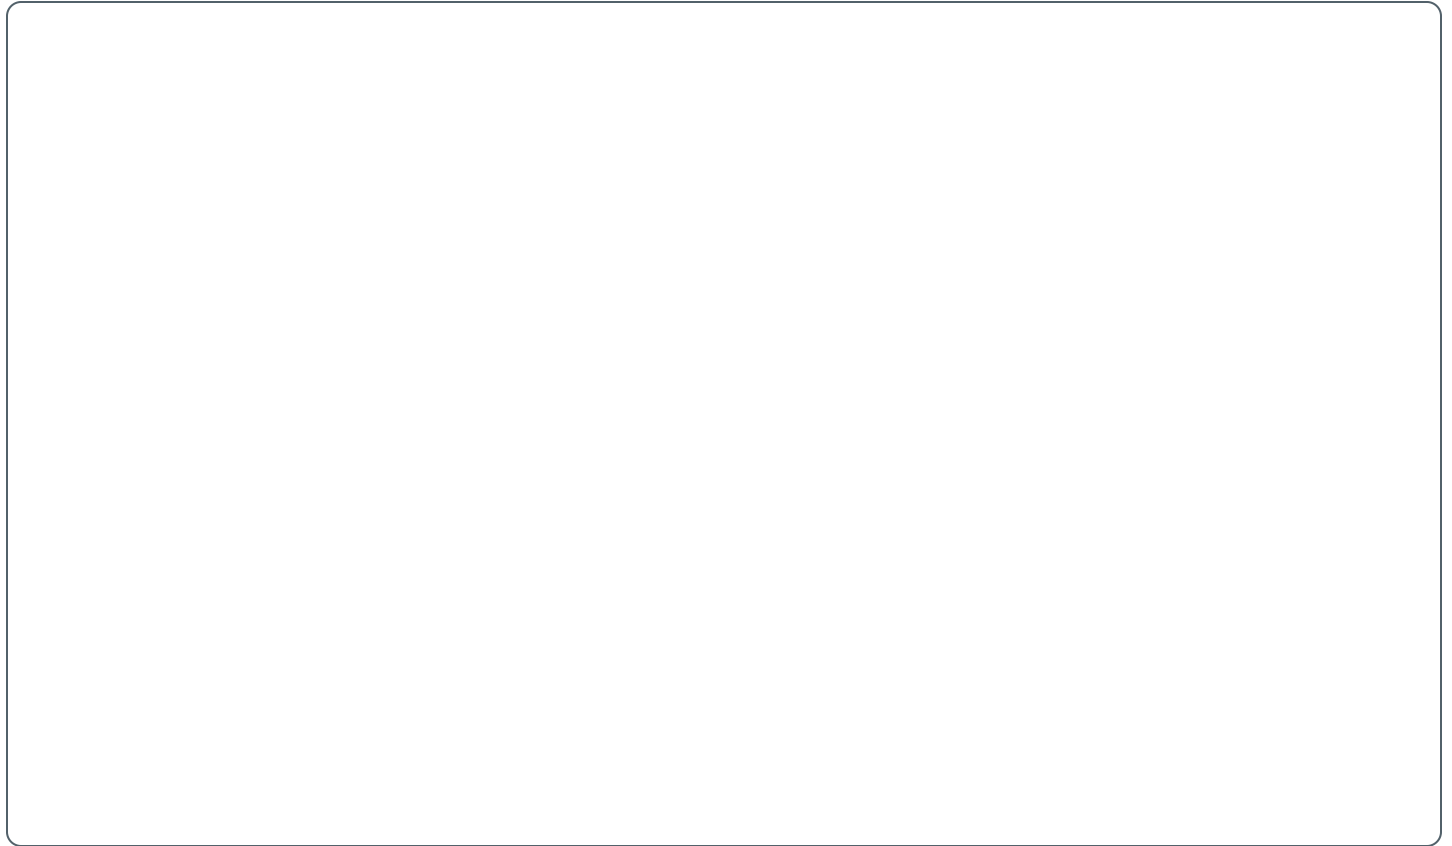

Choose your own colors or patterns. Coloring, pointing or talking about the scene are all welcome.

Design a Bee-Friendly Garden

Name / chosen name: _____

Plan a garden with flowering plants and places that can be cared for by adults. Observe bees from a distance; do not handle or feed them.

1. Flowers I would research for our place

2. How an adult could care for this garden

3. How visitors can observe from a safe distance

Pollinator Observation Hunt

Name / chosen name: _____

Choose an adult-approved outdoor space, a window view or a picture. With a partner, notice without touching insects, unknown plants or nesting places.

Look for	Draw or record
A flower
A leaf
A plant with several flowers
A possible insect visitor seen from a distance
A plant-care item
A question for a garden source

A missing item is a valid finding. Use an indoor picture hunt, pointing or a seated route where suitable.

From Flower to Food

Name / chosen name: _____

Bees and other pollinators help many flowering plants produce seeds and fruits. Explore a question about flowers, pollen or food with a trusted source.

Draw, write, speak or use a fictional example. You may choose fewer prompts or pass.

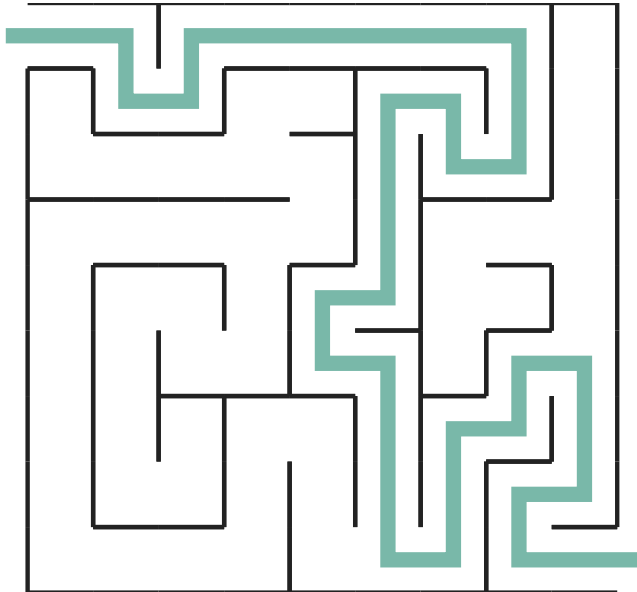

1. A flowering plant I would research

2. An insect visitor I could observe safely

3. A question about pollen or seeds

4. A garden action an adult could plan
