Calling reference: Help with permission · Say thank you · Invite someone · Listen carefully · Share materials · Encourage a try · Care for a space · Notice a helpful action · Offer a quiet choice · Ask before helping · Give a kind message · Respect a no · Include another idea · Help pack away · Speak respectfully · Take turns

Use tokens, pencil marks, pointing or a partner. No private information or completed personal acts are required to win.

My Kindness Story

Name / chosen name: _____

Draw, write, speak or use a fictional example. You may choose fewer prompts or pass.

1. A real or imaginary helpful action

2. How the action respected someone's choice

3. A kind next step

A complex black and white maze with a single path highlighted in green. The path starts at the top left, moves right, then down, then right again, and continues through a series of turns and dead ends, eventually exiting the maze at the bottom right. The maze is composed of many interconnected paths and dead ends, creating a challenging navigation task.
