Kind Words and Unkind Words

Name / chosen name: _____

Cut and sort. We discuss fictional words without directing them at another child.

“Would you like to join us?”

“We can show you how.”

“Your lunch looks interesting.”

“You can sit with us.”

“Let’s take turns.”

“You can’t play with us.”

“That’s weird.”

“You don’t belong here.”

“We only play with our friends.”

“Interesting” is welcoming when curious and respectful; using it sarcastically may hurt.

Find ten differences in ordinary objects between scenes A and B. Changes involve shape, size, place, rotation or removal; colour is not the only clue.

B

Circle differences. They are not differences in people's backgrounds.

What Is Discrimination?

Name / chosen name: _____

Discrimination can mean treating someone unfairly because of a personal characteristic, such as their race or disability. These are introductory fictional examples, not legal decisions.

1. A group refuses to include a child because of their background.

Fair / unfair? Explain.

2. An educator gives picture instructions to a child who needs them.

Fair / unfair? Explain.

3. A game excludes wheelchair users even though a simple change would let them join.

Fair / unfair? Explain.

4. Children choose different books because they have different interests.

Fair / unfair? Explain.

Different support can help people participate fairly. Adults are responsible for addressing harmful treatment.

Speak Up Safely

Name / chosen name: _____

Fictional situation: someone mocks a child's accent. The child looks uncomfortable. Nobody has to confront someone to prove they care.

1. How could you check what support the child wants?

2. What could you say if it feels safe?

3. Which trusted adult could help in this fictional setting?

4. What could you do if speaking directly feels unsafe?

Move to a safer space, offer company and tell a trusted adult. Do not repeat the mocking or demand a personal explanation.

Stereotype or Fact?

Name / chosen name: _____

These places and people are fictional. A stereotype is a sweeping assumption about a group. A checked fact here is supported by the stated information.

1. “Everyone in Rivergum likes spicy food.”
Only one person was asked.
Stereotype / checked fact?
