

Eight fictional story cards

INDOOR CAMPING / CHOOSE, POINT, DRAW OR WORK WITH A PARTNER

Choose one fictional prompt. Take turns adding a sentence, drawing or action. You may pass or change a prompt. Keep real names and private experiences out of the story.

A changing map

Your paper camp map shows a new path. Where could it lead?

A tiny visitor

A fictional mouse wants a shelter made from one paper rectangle. What do you make?

The quiet signal

Your characters need a signal that uses no shouting. What do they try?

The surprise parcel

A pretend parcel contains three paper shapes. How could the camp use them?

A windy day

In your story, a paper flag blows away. How do the characters find it?

The shared book

Two characters want the same storybook. What arrangement do they choose?

A new campsite

A character needs a clear, easy route. How does the group change its pretend camp?

The final message

Before leaving the pretend camp, your characters send one helpful message. What is it?
